Calling All Youth Filmmakers: Submit Your Films for the PCFF Showcase by December 15, 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Providence, RI (November 11, 2014) – The Providence Children’s Film Festival (PCFF) is still accepting films that have been produced by youth aged 6 to 17 years of age for their Youth Filmmaker Showcase (YFS). Films must be no longer than ten minutes in length and there is a ten dollar entry fee.

All accepted youth filmmakers are invited to attend the Youth Filmmaker Showcase screening free of charge along with other activities as part of the 2015 Festival, which takes place each February during school vacation week.

PCFF Executive Director Anisa Raoof says, “PCFF is committed to nurturing the work of young filmmakers and so is proud to present a program of films all made by youth—from here in Rhode Island and around the world—and to provide an opportunity for young filmmakers to talk about both the fun and the challenges they face following the YFS screening.”

The Youth Filmmaker Show deadline is November 22, 2014. Find complete submission guidelines at the PCFF website at <http://pcffri.org/youth-filmmaker-showcase-2015/>

More about PCFF

The Providence Children’s Film Festival (PCFF), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, was founded in 2009 to bring high-quality, independent and international children’s films, animation and documentaries to New England, and to present them as shared theatrical experiences for the community. The festival organizers include artists, educators, librarians, and nonprofit administrators who see value in introducing children to film and animation as a way to help them make connections to both their own and other cultures.
